

SIEBENQUELL

Travelling light from now on

I have seen the miracle flare up in greatest need it was there, I could call it and received more than a bed to sleep in One gave me selflessly of her clothes the coat became a treasure Invitations to dinner became a simple, yet delicious feast a hand held me when I was in danger of falling someone accompanied me when I could not find the path on my own unspeakably more

I have experienced how a thousand miracles happened to me

so I go into the darkness of the coming days have a sense of homelessness know the smell of tears in the midst of prosperity we are too attached to our possessions hard earned, well deserved probably not quite sufficient for living *my heart is warmed by the unavailability the gift

like a memory of the light in which a snowflake is reflected or in the sparkle of a child's eyes or simply: hope, faith, love*

I have seen the miracle flare up in humans

Sylvia Ditt

Koblenz, December 14th, 2023