

„In the time of Corona”

During this time, when unselfconsciousness and freedom lived self-evidently change suddenly to concern,
the flow of life narrows
and is routed anew,
indifference seeks new validations.

The sound barriers that surround us are breaking.

Keen listening already celebrates resurrection,
in the soil of springtime solidarity breathes
and blazes a trail from the darkness into light.

We had nearly forgotten
that we live in a universe.

Out of the religion of stress an intermission can merge.

May we have the courage to see anew
and to recognise what is to be done
in the name of the loving God.

(Arthur Pfeifer SAC 2020)